Dear Friends,

I was the Pastor of Kelly Starr Hamilton for many years and am writing to recommend she and her husband for missionary support. Kelly came to our church several years ago and has shown sincere determination and faithful resolve to serve the Lord. Her testimony is solid, and she certainly has a heart for the ministry. She has always been willing to follow counsel, and has been an honorable young lady towards her parents.

I know that when a couple goes to a field of service that the wife's heart must be in the work to be an encouragement to both her husband and to the people to which they minister. Kelly is not only willing, but enthusiastic about this noble endeavor.

Now, I want to say that I am impressed with Keith. He married this young lady from our church and has taken good care of her, and has been the spiritual leader and faithful Christian that a man of God should be. He was diligent in his studies in college, dependable to provide for his family, and definite in the call of God upon his life to go to Ireland.

Dear brethren, I am just saying that we support with great enthusiasm this fine couple, and I believe the country of Ireland will be served well to have their love and labor. I trust that the Lord will lay upon the hearts of many others to support them, too!

In Christ,
